LOCAL MATTERS.

CENTENNIAL COMMISSIONERS,-On the recommendation of the Chamber of Commerce and other commercial bodies of this city the Governor yesterday appointed Professor J.
W. Mallet, Generals J. R. Anderson, T. M.
Logan, Harry Heth, Dr. S. P. Moore, and
W. H. Hayall an anything Board of Can. W. H. Haxall, an auxiliary Board of Centennial Commissioners of Virginia. As Dist. ict Commissioners, General W. H. F. Lee, Colonel John L. Corley, Charles Bruce, Esq., George W. Palmer, and Major M. B. Harding.

CALL ACCEPTED. -At a meeting of East Hanover Pre-bytery held in Staunton on Thursday, Rev. William N. Scott was permitted to sceept the call placed in his hands from the Third Presbyterian church of this city. Mr. Scott will commence his labors here on Sunday, October 31st.

Drs. Read and Preston were appointed by over the coal-shoot in front of Starke & Ryland's store not being properly adjusted, Mr. David B. Prosser was yesterday thrown down by it and somewhat hurt.

REHEARSAL OF SINGERS TO-NIGHT. - The members of the Gesang-Verein Virginia, the Richmond Philbarmonic Association and of the junior class attached thereto, and all other male singers who have been invited to take part in singing the grand anthem at the un-veiling of the Jekson statue, will meet tonight at the Gerang-Verein Hall at 10 o'clock, whence they will proceed to the Theatre, which has been kindly tendered for the purpose by Mr. Powell for rehearsal immediately after the performance. Members of the various city bands have also been invited and will participate.

THE THEATRE-MRS. DREW .- Mrs. John Drew and her fine Philadelphia Comedy Company continue to attract large audiences at the Theatre. Last night "The Jealous Wife" was presented very acceptably.

This afternoon at the matinee the charming play "School for Scandal" is announced, and to-night "She Stoops to Conquer" will be played. Of course, there will be a large | ber. attendance at the matinée, as Mrs. Drew is one of the most charming actresses in this country.

They are the Candidates of Whom? Editors Dispatch,-Major Normand Smith has announced himself as the Republican candidate for the Senate.

What becomes now of the pledge given by the Bolters to Judge Guigon that there would be no Republican candidates in the field? The combination between the Bolters and the Radicals will become more apparent day by day. Knight, Smith, and Starke!

Starke, Knight, and Smith! Smith, Knight, and Starke! They are the candidates of whom? Bolt-HENRICO. ers and Radicals.

Having been asked by several persons if I was the J. H. Chandler referred to at Monticolo Hall, and fearing others might believe it, I simply give it the denial by saying I intend voting the Conservative ticket out and J. W. CHANDLER.

To the Editors of the Dispatch :

Will you please state the law in reference to members of either branch of the City Council removing from the ward they were elected to represent to another? Can they represent the constituency of a ward in which they do not reside? Your attention will oblige

The charter of the city, chapter III., section 15, provides:

"When any vacancy shall occur in either branch by death, resignation, removal from the ward," &c., "the branch in which such vacancy occurs shall elect a qualified person to supply the vacancy until the next election for members of the Council," &c.

RICHMOND, VA., October 22, 1875. Editors of the Dispatch : I do not think my resignation as leader of Voelker's Band called for any such communication as appeared in yesterday's paper. Arrangements were made between Professor Voelker and myself that he would resign and place me in position as leader, which was accordingly done at the first rehearsal. By the continued advice and solicitation of my friends I was urged to resign, not expecting my resignation would in any wise affect the organization or hinder its prosperity under its distinguished and gentlemanly leader, Protessor Veotker. Respectfully, C. W. TUBBS.
